WITH regard to the war-ship trouble at Colombo, the Ceylon Ob erver says :- We are given to understand that the Government was quite within its rights in allowing three Spanish men-of-war to enter the harbour last Saturday, and yet refusing to allow two French truopships to do so some time ago. The port rule which has been so often referred to, is said to affect troopships only, and not men-of-war, respecting which no rule exists. The order comes from the Imperial authorities and the Colonial Government have nothing more to do with it than seeing it obeyed. If this is so, the explanation must be considered satisfac-

Ar the commencement of the present con tury, according to a Madras paper, the number of Catholics in India was 475, 100 whereas two years ago, the members of the Church lind increased to 1,675,000, giving an increase of 800,000, or on an average nearly 9,000 Christians a year, and now it is probable that an accurate census would show not less then two millions. Taking all drawbacks into consideration, our contemporary thinks this is not only satisfactory, but proves beyond a doubt that as far as the Catholic Missions are concerned, the preaching of the Guspel has produced fraits which, humanly speaking, bear more than a fair proportion to the means employed.

THE GREAT BANK FRAUD CASE, - The Statesman of India says :- Since the aunouncement made in these columns several wcoks ago, that there had been a serious deficit in the accounts of the Chartered Mercantile Bank of India, Australia and China, the cashier, Baboo Shama Churn Sen, has been under suspension. It was also stated that the Babou's movements were being watched; but it was discovered on Friday that the cashier had bolted from Calcutta, and the agent immediately applied for a warrant for his arrest. In the absence of the magistrate from court, the application was made in his privato residence, but up to yesterday however the police had been unable to ascertain his whereabouts; meanwhile as the Baboo is possessed of considerable property in Calcut a, Mr Farr, solicitor on tales for the Bank authorities, applied to his Lordship Mr Justice Wilson to declare the abscording cashier au insolvent. His Lordship granted the application, and made the usual vesting order on the official assignee, with direction to the insolvent to file his schedule within two months of the service of the order. The warrant issued by the magistrate charges the cashier with criminal breach of trust in respect of Rs. 4 62,876

GLADSTONE EXPLAINS HIS VIEWS REGARDING THE CHINESE RESTRICTION ACT. London, May 15 .- Gladstone line writter a lotter in explanation of the remarks on the Chinese question on the occasion of his presentation of an address to Thomas Buyley Potter at the Cobden Club on Monday lust, whou he criticised the anti-Chinese laws in operation in the United States, are declared that the Chinese were more dreaded for their vir ues than their vices. The Liberal leader anys that he did not mean to be understood as favoring unlimited Chinese immigration, but that, limited numbers, they are no more barmful than other races or classes. He admit that legislation restricting the number of Chinese to be annually landed is necessary, but condomns the policy of wholly closing ports to the people of one nationality while leaving them open to others no more desirable as citizons. ENGLAND IN AFRICA.

London. May 11 .- English interests. Central Africa have lad a serious setback in the recapture of the kingdom of Uganda from King Mwanga by King Kalema. 10 April news was received that the British East African Company had concluded fromes with the Christianised monarch Mwanga and his chiefs, which placed the King and air the Ugunda torritory, and possessions under the control of the British company, This virtual annexation of Uganda was done with the intention of blocking the way to the advancement of the Germans northward of Victoria Nyanza and preventing them from attempting to place Emin Pasha in his old province.

The Germans were chagrined at the English getting ahead of them, for, at the timo when the treaty of Uganda was made the German party, under Herr Borchert had built a fartified station in the neighborhood of Mt. Kenia, while Dr Poters, 50 often reported dead, was at Lake Baringoa, both going toward Uginda The English made great, haste

Meanwhile F. J. Jackson, officer of the British company who made the treaty with Mwanga, is thought to be with the defeated forces and with Protest ant and Catholic missionaries on the island above mentioned, whence an attempt to recapture the capital will have to be made. English geographers do not say much or the subject of Ug anda just now, but they do a large amount of thinking. believe that the struggle with Germany for the possession of the lake regions is grow ing very cornest, and that it was a serious mistake to have allowed Stanley to drive Emin to the service of Germany, a man who has undoubtedly had vast influence with the Arabs, and who will be of incal cutable assistance to his new employers. Enin himself is now on his way to Tabara and the kingdoma lying between the southern end of Victoria Nyai za and the northern end of Lake Tanganyike. By bringing several native chiefs of thi region into alliance with Germany and pushing the line of German stations toward Lake Tanganjika the English scheme of gaining possession of the waterway router connecting the sources of the Zambesi and the Nile will be spoilt.
